CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. E. C. Allison, of Stapleton, came down Saturday to spend a week visiting friends.

Ernest Keslar, of Myrtle precinct, moved his family to North Platte the latter part of last week.

Mrs. H. P. Husband left Sunday evening for Grand Island to spend some time visiting with her daughters.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Sanford Hartman.

Lee Simon and C. M. Rogers, of this city were visiting in Sutherland and vicinity Sunday in the interests of the newly formed poultry association.

The town was pretty well filled with farmers Saturday and the candidates for county offices were out in force, but the latter found it difficult to get the men from the farms interested in politics. The farmer these days is more interested in seeing an upward flight of prices for cattle, hogs and hay than he is in politics.

William LePlant of Cottonwood precinct was visiting in the city on business yesterday, calling at the court house.

The Celebrated Lightning Combined Power Self-feed Hay Press at Hershey's opposite post office. Phone 15.

The 500 club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. E. F. Seeberger. Mrs. Seeberger will be assisted by Mrs. Lester Walker.

All members of the W. R. C. are requested to be present at the hall Saturday afternoon, November 7th. The inspector will be present and refreshment will be served.

The Episcopal Guild will hold an all day session Thursday at the home of Mrs. Rincker. Come prepared to work at 10 o'clock and spend the day.

Two delightful Kensingtons were given Wednesday and Friday afternoons of last week by Mrs. W. T. Wilcox and Mrs. Walter O'Connor at the handsome home of the latter. Eighty or more guests enjoyed the hospitality of the two ladies at these affairs.

Senator W. V. Hoagland returned Saturday evening from a trip of several days campaigning over the eastern part of the state. He reports a very successful trip and states that everything looks favorable for him in the eastern as well as the western part of the state.

Francis Dunn went to Wood River Sunday to visit relatives for a week.

Wm. Lane and wife, of Whittier, were shopping in town Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Crook returned Sunday evening from a visit of several days in Omaha and Blair.

Miss Ida Ottenstein returned Sunday evening from Omaha where she visited for several days with her sister, Mrs. Townsend W. Peck. She also visited friends in Blair while she was away.

C. A. Sibley, of Fox Creek, former state senator, transacted business in town yesterday. "In these days of automobiles," said Mr. Sibley, "we farmers get to North Platte more frequently but do not remain as long as formerly."

The quail season opened Sunday and quite a number of hunters were out that day and yesterday. The birds are reported to be plentiful. To John C. Den who never forgets our number, we are indebted to a quail dinner last evening.

Gus Chamberlain, of Denver, was able to make his run into this city Sunday for the first time for several days on account of illness. About a week ago when he came to this city he ate his dinner and on the way to Denver he was taken violently ill. When he got to Denver it was discovered that he was suffering from a severe attack of ptomaine poisoning and he was confined to his home for over a week.

The published notice that the police force would be increased Saturday night did not apparently frighten the boys who delight in Hallowe'en pranks and they were particularly active. Outbuildings were overturned, wagons hauled to secluded places and other property molested. The small boy considers Hallowe'en "his night out" and nothing short of handcuffs and ball and chain will keep him from being active on that particular night.

Steward Smith has arranged for another billiard tournament at the Elks' home which will include practically the same players who participated in the three former tournaments. Tom Healey and Ed Dickey are the respective captains, and the teams were selected by depositing the names of all players in a hat and drawing therefrom. In this way strong players are pitted against poor ones, but in the general line-up the teams are pretty well evened up.

The stack at the new electric plant reached a height of 100 feet today. Fifty feet is yet to be added. We suggest to the company that when the stack is completed that a revolving search light be placed on the top as a beacon to the traveler overland and throwing out a welcome to those entering on trains. It would sure be some advertisement for North Platte.

Hendy & Ogier have given up the agency for the Studeaker car and have been appointed agents for the Dodge car which will soon be on the market and has been heralded as a "surprise" in car building. Nobody seems to know just what this Dodge car is to be, but it is reported that it will be a cracker with a selling price of about $750.

Dies After Two Years' Illness

Edward Loft, for three years a resident of this city, died yesterday morning at 6:45 at the home of Mrs. Emma Pulver, 516 east Fifth street, where he had been confined for some time. He was twenty-seven years of age and his death was due to a malignant disease from which he had been suffering for the past two years.

Mr. Loft came here about three years ago from Chicago with his father, Edward Loft, Sr., and they did carpet cleaning work in this city. After his illness came on he was given the best possible care, but death was inevitable. He suffered greatly until death came and relieved him from the terrible agony.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the Howe & Maloney chapel and interment will be in the North Platte cemetery.

Wessberg-McCoy Nuptials

A pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at six-thirty o'clock at the home of Rev. J. L. Barton, pastor of the Baptist church, when Miss Mable Wessberg of this city was united in marriage to Claude L. McCoy of Omaha. Only a few of the immediate relatives and friends of the parties were present. They were unattended.

Following the ceremony a nice wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents and the young couple left later in the evening for Omaha where they will make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wessberg of this city and has a host of friends here. Until recently she was engaged in nursing in this city. The groom is a fine young man and has a good position in Omaha.

"Alma-Where-Do-You-Live?" is the only attraction which ever was played in three languages in one city at one time. While this attraction was being played at Joe Weber's theatre in New York in English, Adolf Phillips was playing it in German and a French company was also playing it in that language. This a record held by no other attraction and goes to show the popularity of this fascinating musical comedy surprise. The famous "Alma" waltz the strains of which run all the way through the piece has a great deal to do with popularity as it is a waltz which when once heard can never be forgotten. In all there are fourteen big song hits of the singing and whistling kind. Seats on sale Wednesday afternoon. Prices 50c, 75c and $1.00.

F. L. Mooney of the First National bank and attorney J. J. Halligan returned home Sunday evening from Lincoln where they witnessed the football game between the cornhuskers and the Ames Aggies which resulted in the score of 20 to 7 in favor of the Cornhuskers. They report that Halligan, Rutherford and Chamberlain were by far the stars of the game. They also heard W. J. Bryan Saturday evening in Lincoln.

Over a hundred ladies were present Saturday afternoon at the party given at the I. O. O. F. hall by Mesdames R. D. Birge and P. J. Gilman. The feature of the entertainment was an accompanied reading by Mrs. Frank Babcock of Hastings. She read "The Happy Prince" and was accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Morey. The reading was very good and was much enjoyed. At the close of the afternoon nice refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The "Around the World" Party given by the Junior Class Friday evening proved very enjoyable. Leaving the Gantt home in automobiles the tourists visited the S. R. Derryberry residence which represented Germany, the Hoxie residence China, the Faulkner home was Iceland and the home of Miss Helen Gleason the United States. At each stopping place refreshments were served.

Mrs. M. E. Watts left Saturday evening for Corning Iowa, where she will make an extended visit with her son, Isaac Watts, and family.

PLAYING AND WORKING

a man must think of his home and family—to own a home first and then protect it and his family. Insurance against fire is the best policy—a necessary one. Accidents will happen and fire might break out in a home where the greatest caution is continually observed. Get a Fire Insurance Policy from me. It costs little and means much.

Printzess Garments are Moderate in Price

So much has been said of Printzess quality—of their clever styles, all wool materials, master workmanship and unusual fitting qualities, that many have thought Printzess coats and suits to be high priced. The enthusiastic praise of those who have worn Printzess has also tended to increase this feeling.

As a matter of fact Printzess garments are really very moderate in price, and if you really have felt that they were beyond your reach you'll be agreeably surprised after a visit to our garment section. We shall be glad to explain Printzess quality and price to you.

Special Prices

All Ladies' Suits to go at cost. It is a special inducement to wear one of our Printzess Suits. New, Nifty Stuff to be closed out at cost. We never carry over garments from previous seasons, so we show you nothing but this season's merchandise.

Club Nevita Delightfully Entertained.

The Club Nevita was delightfully entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stackhouse at the experimental farm at a Hallowe'en party. Sixteen couples met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Burke and went out to the farm on a hay rack. The affair was a masquerade party and all were masked.

The entertainment began with a grand march, and Mrs. Emily Coates presided at the piano. After this the prizes were awarded and Mrs. Ada Lewis won the prize, a gold hat pin, for the best costume. Charles Lierk won the prize in the automobile contest. There were several other contests for entertainment, and singing and dancing was also indulged in until a late hour. At twelve o'clock a nice two-course luncheon was served, after which there were other diversions and the guests returned home, arriving in the city about two o'clock. All report a delightful evening.

Baker Now Golf Champion

The golfing score was lowered from 63 to 61 Sunday by "Dick" Baker. About twenty-five men were out to the links Sunday trying their hand and this was the best score made. Several of the men are developing into good players. Much interest is being taken and parties of men go out nearly every day.

Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Cressler leave today for Omaha where they will spend four days. Mrs. Cressler will visit friends and the doctor will attend a study club composed of a number of dentists. This club was organized ten years ago and they have a membership of twenty-five, which is the limited number, and they meet several times each year to hold clinics.

Last Saturday was the first anniversary of the organization of the Lincoln Highway. Though the day was not observed in North Platte, there were celebrations held in many of the towns on the highway. The organization of the Lincoln Highway has been instrumental in awakening interest in good roads, and better roads are resulting.

Remarkable Cure of Croup. "Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.
